

I am in total support of the Do Not Call list in NJ. I do not want people calling me and taking away from important time with my family to listen to them tell me about products I could care less about. I have never once received a phone call from a telemarketer and taken advantage of any of the garbage they are trying to sell me. If I am interested in something I will come find you.

Thank you for listening,
Stacy Sanservino